

Starting her company from the hospital bed because of being diagnosed with cancer, Sabrina Walker Hernandez is obsessed with building relationships and small businesses and nonprofits increase their revenue. Having trained over 10,000 clients, Sabrina has a reputation for transformational leadership through staffing and mission alignment, fundraising, expanding programming, and community partnerships.

From helping an organization go from $750K to $2.5M, completing a $12M comprehensive capital campaign, to establishing a $500K endowment in the 3rd poorest county in the United States, Sabrina is using her knowledge to help clients gain the success they serve.
